Fisheries - Inland - Hospet taluk - Kamalapuram tank - Payment of compensation - Orders - Requested.

Ref: 1. No Nil dated 8-6-51 from the District Panchayat Officer, Bellary.
2. G.O.No.3151 Dev. dated 28-1-43.

Prior to 1.4.43 Kamalapuram tank of Hospet taluk was under the control of Fisheries Department and a fixed compensation irrespective of the fishery rentals derived from the tank was being paid to the Panchayat Board Kamalapuram in lieu of loss to the Board. The Director of Fisheries, Madras in his Lo.1830 F/45 dated 30-1-46 ordered for discontinuing the compensation to the Panchayat Board as the tank was restored to the Panchayat Board according to G.O.3151 dated 28-1-43 with effect from 1-4-43.

When the tank is under the control of the Panchayat Board the fishery rentals derived from thetank formspart of the revenue to the Board, according to rule 5 item No. 17 of the rules framed under Madras Local Board Act 1920. But the Tahsildar Hospet was misled by the orders issued by the Director of Fisheries, Madras referred to in para 1 above and has not paid the amount fetched by the sale of fishery rights in the tank from the year 1943-44 to 1947-48.

The Panchayat Board has claimed the amount and the District Panchayat Officer, Bellary has requested to make necessary arrangements to pay the amount to the Panchayat Board. The rentals derived from the tank for the various years are as noted below.

Tahsildar Hospet also reports that a sum of Rs. 500/- was ordered to be deducted from the amount due to the Board for the year 1945-44 by the Asst.Director of Fisheries Rajahmundry in his Ref:No.499 P/40 dated 22-9-48. The Director of Fisheries Madras who was consulted in the matter reports that he is not able to say under what circumstances the amount was ordered to be recovered as the connected files are not traceable now. Deducting the above amount the Panchayat Board is entitled to received Rs. 5990/- being the amount realised by the sale of Fishery rights in the tank. I request that necessary sanction may be accorded for the payment of the amount to the Panchayat Board, Kamalapuram and the amount may be ordered to be included in the allotment for 1952-53.
